Dear St. James Family,

MESSAGE from the VICAR

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

RING THE BELLS! JESUS HAS BEEN BORN! THE WORD HAS BEEN MADE FLESH!

Our reading on Christmas Day from the prophet Isaiah began with these words: “How beautiful...are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news, who announces salvation”

Let the message of salvation be shouted for all who will hear!

As I said in my Christmas Day sermon, it is a glorious feeling to receive good news - to be found when you are lost, to be healed when you are broken, to be freed when you are in chains, to be part of building anew after havoc has destroyed a home, when peace is finally attained where war and hostility previously reigned, to have a melody in our hearts when formerly there was bitterness and pain...and this is the promise of God in the arrival of Jesus Christ.

There are times when we cannot see the good work that is happening below the surface. There are times when the world seems so far gone that peace seems like a dream of a fainter dream. There are times when resources are so slim that rebuilding seems impossible. There are times when the world seems dark and there is nothing we have nothing to cling to except the promise of God. And still...the promise of God remains.

The promise of God is that with the arrival of Christ the scales have irrevocably tipped in favor of light over darkness. As we have been saying throughout Advent and now through the Christmas season: The light shines in the darkness and the darkness does not overcome it.

What does that mean for today? In the imagery of C.S. Lewis and the Chronicles of Narnia, it may still be winter but Christmas is coming. The earth may be hard as iron from weeks and months and years of frost, but the Son has set his foot on the earth and the thaw has begun.

The promise of what has already happened in Christ may not be fully realized in our present circumstances, but in our reality, as Children of the Light, we can be the very change in the world today that we want to see tomorrow. Because the promise has been made, because the Savior has been born, the outcome is secure. The Word has been made flesh, the light has dawned in our hearts, and there is no turning it back.

To celebrate that light that has dawned in our hearts, I invite you to join our Epiphany Celebration on January 6th! The celebration starts at 6pm and service is at 7pm. Lots of fun and participation from our kids! Details are on page 5 in this newsletter. See you there!

Grace and peace to you in Epiphany and in the weeks ahead,

Vicar Bryce Hewlett, SAM

P R E S I D E N T ' S M E S S A G E

Happy January and Happy 2026, St. James!

What an eventful year 2025 was, filled with so many memories for a thousand lifetimes!

Last month, we had a wonderful turnout for our Live Nativity (and everyone braved the below-freezing temperatures!)

We had two Christmas Eve services, one at 4 pm and one at 11 pm. Both were well attended. We will continue celebrating the joy of the holiday season on January 6th with our Epiphany service. Crafts and activities will be provided for the children, as well as a “polar plunge” and an “Around the World” potluck celebration, where you can bring a dish to share from your cultural background!

As we prepare to have our Annual Meeting on January 25th, I want to bring up the proposed changes to our Constitution that we will be voting on. We had a discussion back in October with a lot of good dialogue, where people were able to voice their opinions and concerns. Bryce had encouraged everyone at the end of the meeting to keep thinking about the proposed changes and how they can help St. James' future. We are planning on sending out another email with the drafted constitution updates as we get closer to the Annual Meeting, so you can look over the proposed changes once more. I encourage you all to attend.

Be good. Do good. God bless,

Madeline Schmidt

From the Quilt Block

If you haven't heard yet, the winners of the quilt drawing were:

- #1 "Sweet Disappearing 9 Patch" (twin) Madlyn Wulgaert
- #2 "Chevron" (Twin) Bob Jacobs,
- #3 "Double Frame 16 patch " (twin) Joleen Bakken
- #4 "Hawkeye Square Dance" (lap robe) Carrie Reese
- #5 "Star Burst" (lap robe), Anna Forari
- #6 "Hedge Hog Wild " (baby quilt) Pat Hill

Thanks to all who participated so we can purchase batting. $141.00 was collected which is enough to purchase 1 roll of batting (not including shipping). Each roll will make 27 quilts. Thank you again.

The quilters also participated in the Farmers Market Fall Festival to inform the public of some of the mission work done by the ELCA Lutheran churches in the area. St. James sold some quilts and other items for a total of $155.00 at the Festival. We were joined by Trinity in Pleasant Valley, Grace, Zion, and St. Mark in Davenport.

The quilt group meets on Tuesday, the 27th of January at church from noon to 4:00 p.m. weather permitting. Bring a smile and join the fun. NO SEWING skills are required. We can teach you all you need to know, and you will enjoy the fellowship of the group, snacks, and coffee. Come and see what we are all about.

Keep on stitching.
Shirley Richlen

This has been a very busy time for us! In November, we served a meal for Churches United at Zion Lutheran Church in Davenport. Around 70 people were fed!

Our Giving Tree was once again a great success! We provided gifts to 41 children from 17 families, and 10 adult residents of the Bettendorf Healthcare Center. Thank you to all who made this possible.

We also called Bingo at the Health Care Center on the 18th. They are always so appreciative and it's a joy to be there. They win small stuffed animals and quarters. They also enjoy small figurines.
